This will be determined by whichever reward value is higher – the reward with the highest value will be honoured and issued to the customer if applicable and only if all other terms and conditions have been met.
- The Referee must make a purchase and proceed to installation

- Only once installations have been completed on both properties and payment has been confirmed, will the program rewards be issued to both parties.

Should Cola Solar not be able to get in contact with either the Referrer or Referee at any point, after a reasonable number of attempts the program reward will be voided.

Referrers are welcome to refer as many people as they wish. As long as the above eligibility conditions are met, there is no limit as to how many rewards can be redeemed.
